LOCAL BRIEFS—

House for rent or sale, located on Hillsboro street. See advertisement in another column.

The Boyden House, at Salisbury, N. C., will be rented to the highest bidder on Monday, the 21st instant. See advertisement in another column.

Miss Fannie Biggs, daughter of Hon. Asa Biggs, of Norfolk, and Mr. C. W. Kellinger were married on the 8th inst., by Elder C. B. Hassell, of North Carolina.

Yesterday was Saturday, the House gallery was crowded with young ladies, and we therefore are again forced to the necessity to apologize for any short comings in our Legislative report.

Messrs. W. H. Morris & Co., furniture dealers have just received a nice assortment of folding chairs with or without rockers, suitable for Christmas presents. Call early and secure one or more.

We are requested to state by Mr. Waring, Chairman of the Joint Committee on Public Debt, that a meeting of this committee will be held in the Senate Chamber Monday evening at 7 o'clock.

The Senate yesterday adopted the House resolutions, published by us yesterday morning, in regard to the death of the late Gov. Tod. R. Caldwell. Messrs. Cantwell and Waring advocated the passage of the resolutions, and immediately upon their adoption the Senate adjourned in respect to the memory of the deceased.

COTTON THIEF COME TO GRIEF.—We learn that Thursday night about 8 o'clock on the plantation of the late Gaston H. Wilder, some ten miles east of this city, now operated by Dr. Wilder his son, a negro cotton thief was badly shot. It seems the negro was the ginner and after closing the gin proceeded to the house where he told a younger brother of the Doctor's that it would be well to keep a look-out on the gin because he was of the opinion that cotton stealing was going on. The young man took his advice and loading a musket with squirrel shot went near the gin and took his stand.

He did not wait long before the game appeared and as it turned out when the thief fell it was the veritable ginner who had so kindly advised the "watch." He had brought some twenty-five pounds of cotton out of the gin and hid it under the eaves of the same and had the cotton on his shoulder in a basket when shot. The young Mr. Wilder was in fifteen feet of him when he fired, and no doubt would have killed him but for the fact the thief had on a thick coat and three undershirts. As it was, the shot entered his back to the depth of half an inch. As he fell he cried out:

"Its only motes (refuse cotton) that I took, Mr. Sewell."

Mr. S. is the overseer, and the negro thought that it was he that had poked the lead into him.

Dr. Wilder informs us that he is not dangerously wounded.

REV. M. M. MARSHALL.—The distinguished young divine whose name heads this article, and the rector of Christ's Episcopal Church of this city, has received a call from St. Paul's Episcopal Church in Petersburg. We have not learned with what consideration Mr Marshall has treated the call, but we only speak the expressed wish of his Church and the citizens of Raleigh generally that he will decline and devote his valuable ministerial services with us. Though quite young in years and the ministry, being only about thirty years of age, he has won for himself, by superior merit alone, an enviable position in the Church that his services adorn, as was evidenced by the unanimous call for his services by the vestry of Christ's Episcopal Church, perhaps the largest and most influential congregation in the State. Since his sojourn here, only a few months, he has even exceeded the expectations of his congregation, and we speak knowingly when we say that they would part with him with the most sincere regret. The pulpit to which he has been called is made vacant by the election of his brother-in-law, the Rev. Mr. Wingfield, the former pastor, to the Bishopric of California.

We can only add our wish to that of the general public, that Mr. Marshall will remain in the position that he now fills so acceptably to his congregation and the people.

RELIGIOUS.—Rev. Marcena Stone, D. D., will occupy the pulpit of the Swain Street Baptist Church to-day. Bishop Wingfield will preach in Christ Church to-day.

For other changes, if any in the various pulpits of the city, see our Church Directory elsewhere in to-days' NEWS.

SCHOOL FOR BOYS.—The exercises of the school of Mr. C. H. Scott will be resumed on the 13th of January. See notice in another column.

NOTICE TO SUBSCRIBERS.—On the first day of January, under the new postal laws, we will be compelled to prepay postage upon all papers sent from our office. It will therefore be impossible for us to send any paper that is not paid for in advance. Bills and notices are now being sent to all names upon our books whose time will expire on or by the first of January, and we give this notice in order that all parties may know that if their subscriptions are not renewed by that time we will discontinue the same on that day.

JORDAN STONE,
Manager of the NEWS.

THE RACES AT THE FAIR GROUNDS YESTERDAY.—We were unable to attend the races yesterday at the fair grounds, but sent a "hand" who came back too "gloriful" to make a report for this issue, but says he will be able to report in full in our next issue. We learn that the sport was excellent and the attendance good. Simon Hay's mare, Fannie, won the trotting race, but was closely contested by Nick West's buggy horse "Nick."

The quarter running race was won by a horse entered by Jas. Madison Bass.

The half-mile running race was won by Pulaski Cowper's gray horse, "Wire Grass."

The pacing race was won by Master Willie Tucker's black pony, aged twenty-two years, which was handsomely accomplished in good time, defeating several renowned pacers.

The mule race, the most interesting event of the occasion, was closely contested and our reporter was unable to see which came out ahead. A number of mules were expected, but only two came to the sound of the horn. These were furnished by Mr. Thomas B. Cain, of Tennessee, (who has a drove of mules in the city). Mr. Cain, learning the objects and purposes of the race, very kindly furnished the requisite mules with riders, and thus added much to the amusement of the visitors.

A good number of ladies were present and a general good time prevailed. Everybody seemed to have a good time, a handsome amount was realized for the poor of the city, who will rise up and bless the clever gentlemen that planned and carried out this harmless amusement for their benefit. We take this occasion to commend the action of the gentlemen that got up the affair, and hope they will repeat at an early day.

MASONIC.—The Grand Lodge of Masons closed its session on Thursday evening last, after completing some of the most important legislation that has ever been done for the interests of Masonry in North Carolina. The revenue system of the Grand Lodge has been changed so as to provide for a per capita stipend of 50 cents on the membership of each Lodge, doing away with the old system of $15 from each Lodge. The revenues of the Grand Lodge will thus be increased about $1,700. The question of the status of non-affiliated masons has been finally settled. This class of masons, while they are relieved of the very stringent legislation of two years ago, still occupy a relation of non participation in the rights and privileges of the order. Other important measures have been adopted which will result in good to the Lodges in the State and bring a re-action generally among them. The Grand Master elect, Mr. Geo. W. Blount, of Wilson, is a gentleman of intelligence and carries with him into the office a Masonic experience which will enable him to wield the power which he possesses to the advantage of the order in the State.

DEATH OF A MEMBER OF THE LEGISLATURE.—Through a special telegram to the NEWS, we learn of the death of William H. Williams, colored, a member of the lower House of the General Assembly, from Warren county. Only a few days ago he obtained a leave of absence on account of sickness, and reached his home just in time to die.

We have known Williams from his childhood up, and we can say that he stood deservedly high in the esteem of the people of Warren county on account of his many good traits of character. In consequence of his failing health, he took no part in the debates of the House, but was always present at his post, and voted regardless of politics for the general good of the State and his constituency.

WE PASS.—Caldwell, of the Charlotte Observer, propounds to us a knotty kinship proposition, which we of course "give up" but at the same time say to him that it is "out of order" for him to answer our question by asking another. He says:

"Woodson, of the Raleigh NEWS, propounded a knotty kinship proposition to us the other day, and it got away with us. Now, we've got one for him, and he may call in the whole Legislature to help him answer it: If A's mother's mother was B's mother's aunt, what relation would B's grand father's nephew be to A's elder brother's son-in-law?

Come up to the scratch, now, Woodson, and let's have your voice in this matter."

We "pass," but the Legislature can devote their leisure moments to-day in solving the problem.

SENTENCED.—John W. Sessoms, of Bertie county, as stated in our reports yesterday, was convicted of making a false return as Distillery Surveyor, and was sentenced by Judge Brooks yesterday to three years in the penitentiary, the Judge refusing to grant the new trial asked for.

Mr. Sessoms has heretofore borne a very good character in his section, and this announcement will be received with sincere regret by his many friends in Eastern Carolina. It is said that he was convicted on a technicality, and it is possible that he had no intent to defraud. We sympathise with his good family in their affliction, and seriously regret the unfortunate occurrence. Mr. Sessoms has been committed to the Wake county jail.

THE BINGHAM SCHOOL.—We invite attention to the advertisement of the well known Bingham School that appears in to-day's NEWS. We can say nothing in praise of this justly celebrated Academy, as its reputation extends to every point and section of our State. Major Robert Bingham, the Principal, is truly a "chip of the old block," and under his management the school has never receded from its well-earned reputation. In addition to the advantages of a superior faculty, special attention is paid to the morale of the students, every one being required to subscribe to certain rules before he is allowed to enter. The first two rules are total abstinence from drinking and gaming.

A SHOOTING SCRAPE.—Last night Policeman Hays attempted to arrest a negro for boisterous conduct on the street, when the offender became obstreperous and refused to be arrested. As Hays drew his "billy" the negro broke and ran off up Hargett street. Policeman Forest came up at this juncture and started in pursuit, but finding the negro had the wind and bottom on him, he resorted to his pistol belt, several shots were fired by the policeman but the negro kept on. Considerable excitement was occasioned thereby, but nothing of a serious nature occurred.

RALEIGH SAVINGS BANK.—In the Senate yesterday the bill introduced by Mr. Busbee, to charter the Raleigh Savings Bank in this city, passed its third reading. It is to be incorporated in the name of A. W. Shaffer, John C. Blake, Charles M. Busbee, W. J. Hicks, Thomas Badger, Henry Marler, John Nichols and Gustave Rosenthal and their associates. The capital stock is to be not less than $50,000 and may be increased to not more than $500,000. The seven gentlemen named are constituted directors until their successors shall be chosen.

The Kansas Tribune has suspended publication. In saying farewell to its readers, the local editor writes: "The clock tolled twelve just now, and told us that the hour for our retiring had at last arrived. Discrepit, infirm, and we trust prepared, we have long had an eye to our latter end. It has come with this issue, and we serenely cease lying up our patrons and lie down to pleasant country pilgrimages. We are going to stray where the honeysuckle climbs and the woodbine twines—where the wicked cease from troubling and locals are at rest." * * * "For what we may have by accident said amiss and are regretful for we expect to be forgiven, and, having intentionally arraigned no one, we are willing to call it square with all but luck." The "foreman" takes his leave as follows:

"Locking your form in fond em-brace
As you stand on the brink of endless space,
I fold you in your winding sheet,
Requiescat en pace across the street."

Mr. Graham, a resolution requesting information from the Governor concerning the State's interest in the North Carolina Railroad Company. Adopted.

House resolution allowing the Sheriff of Graham county until the 20th of January, 1875, to settle with the State Treasurer for 1874, was concurred in.

WHEREAS, Grave doubts exist as to the duty and right of the Governor of the State to offer a reward for his re-capture and return to confinement; Therefore, be it

Resolved, By the Senate, the House of Representatives concurring, that His Excellency, the Governor, be and he is hereby authorized and instructed to offer a reward of $500 for his re-capture and return to the jail in Wake county, and upon the receipt of the jailor, to draw his warrant upon the Treasurer to be paid out of any money not otherwise appropriated.

Bill to extend the laborer's and mechanics lien law to 60 days failed to pass its second reading.

Bill repealing the law of 1873-'74 maing unlimited jurisdiction to givgistrates in certain cases.

Mr. Kerr thought the present law operated greatly to the detriment of the good people of many portions of the State, and gave too great power to men incapable of having power.

Mr. Latham moved to indefinitely postpone the question, believing that the law which has just passed the Senate requiring magistrates to give bond would fully cover the ground needed.

Mr. Cantwell did not defend the present Magistracy of the State. He knew that these evils existed, but the only way this could be remedied would be to call a Convention and place the power of electing these officers in the hands of the Governor and the Senate, and this he favored.

Mr. Kerr opposed the motion to postpone, as the people of his section needed the relief.

Mr. Waring favored the indefinite postponement, as the bill would be imposing a hardship upon the people of the West after the passage of the bill requiring a bond from Magistrates.

Mr. C. M. Cooke strongly sustained the views of Messrs. Waring and Latham. He could not see the objection urged against the law by the Senator from Sampson. It was something needed in every section of the State, and he hoped the motion to indefinitely postpone the bill to repeal would prevail.

Mr. French was glad that he could for one shake hands politically with the Senator from New Hanover, the fault was in the Constitution itself. It was absolutely necessary that the Magistrates should have large jurisdictions or many persons accused of crimes, whether guilty or not, would be compelled to lay in prison six months because they could not have a hearing, and this at great cost to the county.

Mr. Kerr had seen so much evil arising from this power that he was compelled to raise his voice against it. There were unscrupulous officers in Eastern Carolina whose opinions and judgments could be bought for a drink of whiskey, and the relief should be given his people and the people of Eastern Carolina. He did not yet know the will of the people in regard to the calling of a Convention.

Mr. Morehead said that, but for the fact that he advocated in the last General Assembly the enactment of the law which this bill proposes to repeal, he would say nothing. The Senator from Sampson states truly that there are many grave objections to the law, but the Senator ought to strike at the root of the evil. The Constitution prescribes the jurisdiction of a justice of the peace, the Legislature merely regulates the punishment of misdemeanors. Without this law, in addition to reasons already given, there would be almost a denial of justice. The remedy for this and other evils which we have tried to remedy, and the only remedy is to amend the Constitution. I was surprised to hear the Senator from Sampson in reply to the Senator from New Hanover, express a doubt of what was the will of the people on the question of calling a Convention. The Senator has failed to note that at every election held since the bayonet election, at which this carpet-bag Constitution was adopted, and at which thousands of our best and most intelligent citizens were prevented from voting, the people have uniformly elected a majority of their representatives from that party which has at all times and under all circumstances professed hostility to the present Constitution, and always promised the people to alter and amend the same in the most speedy and economical manner, "in pursuance of law." The people having attempted to amend by the tedious and costly 'legislative method,' and failed to secure some of the most important and necessary amendments, at the last election elected a greater number than was required to insure the call of a Convention, from that party who are bound by their promises to give the people the opportunity to remodel and amend their organic law in the most speedy and economical way known to the Constitution. The Senator from Sampson and every other Senator is obliged to see from these recorded and repeated verdicts of the people what the wish of the people is—and I have no doubt that the intelligent people of the State, regardless of party, are surprised that a Legislature, composed as is this one, a North Carolina Legislature, should sit as long as we have, without giving the people an opportunity to remodel their Constitution, professing, as four-fifths of the members of this Assembly do, to believe that this Constitution is the source of innumerable evils to our people.

Mr. Busbee called the previous question.

The bill failed to pass by a vote of 2 ayes, 40 noes, Messrs. Bell and Kerr voting in the affirmative.

Mr. Bell called up the bill to prevent obstructions in the navigation of Newport River. Passed its third reading.

Mr. Albright called up bill for the relief of the W. & W. R. R. Company. It was recommitted to the Committee on Claims.

Bill to incorporate the Raleigh Savings Bank and Trust Company, passed its several readings.

Bill to pay Solicitors $10 for each conviction in cases of felony was considered.

Messrs. Waddell, Morehead and Waring favored this bill, and Messrs. Latham and Williamson opposed it upon the ground that this was no time to increase salaries. The advocates of the measure said it was only intended to re-enact a law of the Revised Code, in order to correct an error committed in a law enacted in 1873-'74.

Pending the discussion of this bill, the was considered, being the House resolutions (published in our House reports yesterday) in the memory of the late Governor Tod R. Caldwell.

Mr. Cantwell paid a warm eulogy to the memory of the deceased, to his private character and public worth.

He was followed by Mr. Waring, advocating the adoption of the resolutions.

Resolutions concurred in, and the Senate adjourned in respect to the deceased.

HOUSE REPRESENTATIVES

The House met at 11 o'clock, Mr. Speaker Robinson in the Chair.

Prayer by the Rev. Mr. Rich, of this city.

Journal of yesterday read and approved.

Several resolutions and petitions were offered, which will be noticed when brought up on the Calendar. (We being unavoidably absent during the call of the morning hour did not get them.)

CALENDAR.

Senate bill to amend sec. 6, chap. 91, of Battle's Revisal, the provisions of which were given by our Senate reporter, taken up and passed its readings.

Senate bill to amend chapter 27, laws of 1873-74, passed its readings. The bill continues in force the net named for two years.

Senate resolution to raise a joint standing committee on Battle's Revisal, laid on the table.

House bill for the better protection of the county bridge across Seuppernong river in Tyrrel county, passed its readings.

House bill to reduce the bonds of the Sheriff and Superior Court Clerk of Columbus county taken up, and on motion of Mr. Fields recommitted to the Committee.

House bill in favor of the employees of the Marion and Asheville turnpike taken up and discussed. Messrs. McRae and Staples opposed the bill as they were unwilling to father any of the legislation of the Legislature of 1868. Messrs. Gudger, Fields and Green spoke in advocacy of the bill. The bill failed on its second reading, when Mr. Gudger moved a reconsideration and appealed to the House to allow the friends of the bill to discuss its merits and vote for the reconsideration. Mr. Gudger was supported by Messrs. Greene, Candler, Patton, Mendenhall and Moore, colored; Messrs. McRae, Staples and McIver opposed the reconsideration. The motion to reconsider prevailed, and the further consideration of the bill postponed to Tuesday next at 12 o'clock and made the special order for that hour.

SPECIAL ORDER.

House bill for the relief of the sureties of T. F. Lee, late Sheriff of Wake county, taken up as the special order.

Mr. Whitley offered a substitute which did not allow the Treasurer to give credit with what had already been paid into his hands. The substitute was accepted.

Mr. Stephenson advocated the passage of the bill.

The bill then passed its final reading

RULES SUSPENDED.

On motion of Mr. Oaksmith, the rules were suspended and his resolution asking Congress to repeal the law providing for the tax on issues of State Banks was taken up.

This resolution is the same in substance as the one offered by Mr. Tate, provides for a repeal of the tax on issues of State Banks, thereby placing State Banks on the same footing with National Banks.

Mr. Pinnix offered an amendment, changing the phraseology, but not altering the original intent of the bill, which was accepted.

Mr. Boyd offered a substitute to repeal all laws under which taxes are now levied from the people, and that such laws be enacted as may be necessary, whereby the circulation of money may be increased to such an extent that no citizen will hereafter stand in want.

Mr. Tate moved to indefinitely postpone, as a resolution of the same character had been reported favorably by the Finance Committee and was now on the calendar.

Mr. Oaksmith "went for" Mr. Boyd for treating a matter of this magnitude with so much levity, and desired his substitute recorded as a monument of the folly of the gentleman from Alamance. He also stated in his reply to Mr. Tate, that this resolution was more comprehensive and more elaborate, and consequently its effect more powerful.

Mr. Staples, in reply to Mr. Boyd, said, "if there is one peculiarity more than another, characterizing the principles and conduct of the gentleman from Alamance, and many of his party friends, it is, that of a morbid and never-ceasing desire to be pensioners upon the bounty of Congress, and I am not surprised that he should introduce the substitute under discussion.

This question should not be treated with levity by this General Assembly. It enumerates grievances under which our people are now suffering of a very important character. Every well informed man kn

ARCHBISHOP BAYLEY, of Baltimore, in a lecture recently delivered in Washington City, took occasion to criticise sharply, but justly, the publications, in the way of paper and magazine, of the HARPERS, of New York. Time and again from the lecture-stand the demerits of these publications have been exposed, and yet we venture the prediction that more copies of Harper's Magazine are sold in the South than of any other professedly literary periodical published in the country.

This should not be the case. Besides the want of literary excellence in their periodical, the HARPERS have been bitter, relentless enemies of our people, and deserve no support from them.

MR. BECK'S BILL.

We publish below the bill introduced in the House of Representatives, on Monday last, by Mr. BECK, of Kentucky. The bill is intended to correct an abuse, which has grown to be a most glaring and dangerous one in government matters in Washington. For many years it has been the habit of members of Congress to appear before the courts of the United States, or before the several departments of the general government, as counsel for parties charged with violations of the law. Especially has this been the case in suits concerning the collection of the revenue; and in many instances, doubtless, the official position of the counsel has done much to shield the guilty from the punishment their offences deserved.

To correct this abuse, which is a growing one, extending in its ramifications through every branch of the civil service, Mr. BECK prepared and introduced the following bill, which it is sincerely hoped may become a law. It has passed the House of Representatives and will be sent to the Senate for concurrence.

The bill reads as follows:

"That no Senator, Representative or Delegate to Congress shall, after his election or during his continuance in office, act as agent, attorney, proctor, advocate, solicitor or counsel for any person against whom suits or proceedings other than criminal have been or are about to be commenced for violation of the Revenue laws, or who has any claim for drawbacks or reclamations for duties, taxes or excises paid or demanded for the United States, or any agent, employee, informer, officer or officers of the Revenue or Customs service of the United States, in any suit or proceeding relative to the customs dues, excises or taxes; nor shall he receive any compensation, gift or reward from such persons or officers for any service, advice, counsel or aid afforded such person or persons, officer or officers, agent, informer or employee, and any person offending against this provision shall, on conviction thereof, be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and be punished by fine not exceeding $5,000 and imprisonment for a term not exceeding ten years, at the discretion of the Court trying the same; and any person who shall pay or cause to be paid to any Senator, Representative or Delegate, or to any person for his use or benefit, directly or indirectly, any sum of money or other thing of value because of such services or advice relative to any of the matters aforesaid, shall have a right at any time to bring suit for the recovery thereof or its value in any court of the United States against such Senator, Representative or Delegate or the person or persons who received the same, or may unite all such persons in the same suit."

TEXAS AND NORTH CAROLINA.

We do not believe that the State of Texas has advantages as a home for emigrants not possessed in an equal degree by North Carolina; and yet as an evidence of the prosperity of the "Lone Star State" it is asserted that she has had an increase of two hundred thousand to her population during the past year. This remarkable increase in population is attributed to the fact that the government of the State is in the hands of her own people, thus insuring justice and stability, and to the further fact that Texas has a well-regulated and highly efficient Bureau of Immigration, whose efforts to induce the settlement of thrifty, honest farmers and mechanics have been crowned with remarkable success.

We commend these facts to our law-makers, and urge them to give this important subject careful thought and attention. We have thousands of acres of high fertile and easily cultivable land lying idle for want of labor. If the advantages of our soil, climate and location could be properly put before those seeking new homes, we believe that large numbers of honest and industrious immigrants could be induced to take up their residences with us. This desirable end cannot be secured, however, if we quietly wait the turning of the tide, without an effort to make the turning. We must adopt some practicable means of acquainting the world with the advantages we offer settlers, and then direct those settlers in their efforts to reach us.

The future of North Carolina is a bright one, if only, by wise legislation and prompt action, the means of recuperation are determined and adopted.

AN IMPORTANT BILL.

The State Senate has pending a bill, which provides that deeds conveying a fee simple title to real estate, shall, as in the case of mortgages and deeds of trust, have force and effect from the date of registration only. Properly guarded, the bill is a good one and should commend itself to the General Assembly. As the law now stands, making absolute deeds operative from the date of execution and mortgages and deeds of trust operative from the date of registration, opportunities for the grossest fraud are frequent; and the fact that cases of wrong have not more frequently occurred is due more to the honesty of the people and the regard had for a good reputation than to any safeguard provided by law.

If ever North Carolina is to become the resort of any considerable number of immigrants the bill will almost be a necessity. What we need to build up the State by the development of her resources, agricultural and mining, is the incoming of men of capital, as well as men of muscle. Before the former will consent to make purchases of real estate they will require evidence of the soundness of title to the land they wish to purchase. As the law now stands it may be almost impossible to give such evidence. Pass this bill, however, requiring all instruments conveying title to real estate to be registered in order to acquire validity, and the successive steps in title may be readily traced.

We sincerely trust that the defects of the original bill, if any there be, will be removed and then that the General Assembly will enact the bill into a law, thereby preventing that confusion of titles, which is so fruitful a cause of litigation and bad blood.

THE ALABAMA JUDGESHIP.—Representatives Hays, Judge Safford, ex-Gov. Lewis, Representatives Pelham and ex-Gov. Parsons, of Alabama, were at the Executive Mansion yesterday to see the President with reference to the appointment of a successor to Judge Busteed. Messrs. Hayes and Safford and ex-Governor Lewis succeeded in obtaining audience with the President, but Representative Pelham and ex-Gov. Parsons, on account of the late hour at which they arrived, were not so fortunate. It is believed the President will select a successor to Judge Busteed during the present week, and that the choice lies between Safford, Lewis and Parsons, with the chances about equal.

The Hon. D. W. Voorhees seems to be looming up in the senatorial race in Indiana, and the prospect is that unless his competitors succeed in combining he will carry off the prize. Mr. Voorhees has been true to Democratic principles through sunshine and storm, and his election would be gratifying to his thousands of friends and admirers throughout the South, who remember with gratitude his unselfish defense of their rights on the floor of the House of Representatives.

The cadet case of Stowell has been referred to the House committee on naval affairs for investigation, with power to send for persons and papers. He may be acquitted by this Congress, but that does not exonerate him from another investigation in the next Congress.—Pet. News.

The whole number of granges reported this month in the United States, is 21,472, an increase of 364 during November. New York is said to have 286 granges.

The Effect.

The New York Journal of Commerce makes the following just remarks upon the tendency of General Grant's message on Southern affairs:

"Whatever disturbances occurred at the South just before the election—and there was nothing serious of that nature—the southern people, black and white, are most amicably disposed to acquiesce in the result of the campaign. With the exception of a local and passing difficulty, originated by negroes at Vicksburg, the whole South is in a condition of profound peace. So far as all human auguries go, this blessed state of things promises to continue. And yet President Grant seizes this very occasion, which ought to be a theme of national thanksgiving, to reiterate his old distrust of the Southern whites, and his purpose to enforce the law 'with rigor'—that is, always against the Conservatives. Persistence in this policy—upon which the President and the Radical wing of his party are frantically bent—will only the sooner hasten the overthrow of those who now misgovern the country."

It has been estimated that of 12,000,000 women in America 11,000,000 wear calico dresses, more or less; that the spirit of economy has, during the past year, induced them to forego one dress apiece from their usual outlay; that the average calico dress contains eleven yards, and that consequently there has been a loss to the trade by this retrenchment of 121,000,000 yards. This is nearly the entire product of all the mills of Massachusetts for a year.

To-morrow or day after we shall be honored with the presence in our city of a real live King—Kalakaua, of the Sandwich Islands. TAILORING.

POLONIUS' ADVICE TO LAERTES:

"Costly thy Habit as thy Purse can Buy."

It will be remembered by Shakespeare readers in the play of Hamlet, the advice of Polonius to his son Laertes, who was just in the act of leaving Denmark for a journey to France, wherein he said:
"Costly thy habit as thy purse can buy but not expressed in fancy; rich not gaudy—for the apparel oft proclaims the man, &c., &c.
Ministers from the pulpit have said that every young man should paste in his hat the remarks in full of Polonius.

WEIKEL, the Merchant Tailor in endorsing all that has been said on the subject, would remark that he is better prepared than ever to supply to his numerous friends and customers "habits" just like those mentioned. "Rich, but not cumbrous and not so "costly" as you might suppose.

THE DAILY NEWS.

SUNDAY.....DECEMBER 19, 1874.

NORTH CAROLINA.

A Charlotte organ grinder netted $65 in that town last week.

The new Buncombe county court house has been commenced.

The Carolina Comedians performed in Statesville last Friday night.

Statesville had a snow storm last Monday, a luxury that we seldom enjoy.

The Mayor and Aldermen of the city of Charlotte, it is thought, will attend the Wilmington Fair in a body.

The prospect for fine racing at the Wilmington fair is very flattering. The premiums offered are exceedingly liberal.

The editor of the Statesville Pioneer celebrated his fortieth anniversary of his marriage on Friday. May he be permitted to celebrate his eightieth.

Of the 225 inhabitants of the village of Mount Olive, Wayne county, there is only one negro, and notwithstanding this the town is noted for its prosperity.

The Pee Dee Herald says: "The indications are that there will be a large delegation from Anson in attendance at the Fair of the Cape Fear Agricultural Association next week."

The town of Wadesboro is afflicted with a swindling machine called the Wheel of Fortune. The proprietors style themselves a Beneficial Association for the benefit of the Oxford Orphan Asylum.

"Ye Local" of the Charlotte Observer has been presented with a doll baby. The baby has been safely stowed away in the same box that contains the corset given him some time ago. That boy, Joe Caldwell, should get married at once.

Mr. A. L. Rountree, the very popular and worthy Cashier of the Bank of Wilson, has resigned his position and Mr. John Hutchinson, of Newberne, has been selected to fill his place, and has assumed the duties of the same. The Newbernian speaks in the highest terms of Mr. H., as a citizen and regrets the loss that Newberne sustains by his departure.

[For the Daily News.

Col. James R. Love, of Jackson, Senator 42nd District—Old Documents—Military Record of North Carolina Troops.

We have been permitted by the gentleman whose name heads this article, and who so ably and efficiently represents the 42nd District in the General Assembly, to copy from originals in his possession the following congratulatory military communications for publication as illustrative of the high estimation in which North Carolina troops were held by Generals in the Confederate States Army during the late war between the States. It will be observed that these communications were written by Commanders and Generals from three different States, not of North Carolina, but of Tennessee, Kentucky and Virginia, entirely disinterested so far as locality is concerned, rendering due honor and praise to the gallantry and efficiency of the "Tar-Heels," as soldiers in the late Confederate States Army.

ZOLLICOFFER, TENNESSEE, 14th October, 1864.

Col. James R. Love, Commanding Thomas Legion:

Colonel—I am directed by the Bragidier-General Commanding to say that it affords him infinite pleasure to express through you, to your command, his unqualified approbation of their gallant conduct in the charge upon the enemy on the morning of the 11th instant. Such exhibition of valor and soldierly bearing will receive, as it deserves, the everlasting remembrance of a grateful country, and ever be an object of pride to their General.

I am, Colonel, most respectfully, your obedient servant,

EDWARD O. GUERRANT, A. A. G.,
On Gen. John S. Williams' staff.

HEADQUARTERS 4TH BRIGADE, Zollicoffer, Tenn., Oct. 14th, 1863.

Col. James R. Love, Commanding Thomas' Legion.

The Brigadier General commanding desires to express through you to your command his high admiration of their valor on the field of battle, and their manly endurance without food or rest, of the unprecedented march of sixty miles in less than thirty hours. It affords him great pleasure to thus acknowledge their extraordinary gallantry in the repeated charges made by them upon the enemy on the morning of the 11th instant. He hopes they will continue to manifest the same spirit of bravery and endurance of which they have shown themselves so eminently possessed.

For the defence of our homes and firesides, your General feels confident it is the stern determination of every soldier to die in the trenches rather than yield to a hated and insolent foe.

Very respectfully
Your ob't servant,
W. B. REESE, A. A. G.,
On Brig. Gen. A. E. Jackson's Staff.

HEADQUARTERS, WHARTON'S DIVISION, Camp near New Market, Va., Dec., 8th, 1864.

Col. James R. Love, Commanding, etc., North Carolina:

COL:—The Brigadier General, Commanding, directs me to tender you some assurance of his appreciation of the gallant and effective service rendered by your command during its connection with this Division. His personal observation of their efficiency and heroic conduct at Kernstown, Winchester, Leetown, Cedar Creek and many other hard fought fields enables him to speak accurately of the soldierly bearing, heroic fighting and admirable steadiness and coolness, though confronted by a myriad foe, which you and your brave men ever displayed in action. The patience and cheerful endurance of the toilsome march, brief rests and hard fighting, which you and your gallant band ever exhibited has won his hearty commendation and leaves each of your patriotic command a record bright and unsullied.

The gallant conduct of your command rendered your efforts to rejoin your command in North Carolina and East Tennessee abortive, and the constant refusal to your many applications for transfer, is complimentary evidence of the esteem in which you were held, and a grateful acknowledgement of the services you could render.

The General requests that you return to your officers and men, his warm commendation for their patriotic conduct while with us, particularly Lieut. Robert L. Conley, whose coolness, steadiness, bravery and judgment upon the skirmish line, deserves honorable mention.

While tendering to your command, his high appreciations of their past services, it is doubly gratifying to the Brigadier General to know that they are ready and willing to undergo again the hardships and privations heretofore endured by them, if necessary, for the accomplishment of our independence.

I am, Col.,
Very respectfully,
Your ob't serv't,
C. A. DERUSSY,
A. A. G.,
On Gen'l Wharton's Staff.

North Carolinians will ever feel proud of the glorious record of our soldiers made during the late unfortunate war, and those who have old unpublished records of our gallant "Tar-heels" should give the same to the world. The historian, as he gives and assigns to North Carolina soldiers the front picture in the first Bethel Battle, and all subsequent battles thereto, will also trace and fix the further historic fact that in the high lands of Western North Carolina by North Carolina soldiers was fought the "last battle" east of the Mississippi River for the "lost cause"—the troops being commanded by Col. James R. Love, of Jackson, the Senator from the 42nd District.

This battle was fought on the 17th of April, 1865, at Mill Creek, McDowell county, North Carolina, and was a success to the Confederates, delaying General Gilliam in his advance on Asheville, then the headquarters of the Military District of North Carolina, and causing him to take a more circuitous route to that place. Col. Love, with his forces, marched to Asheville during the Johnson and Sherman Armistice On the 5th of May, 1865, at Allman's Mills, in Haywood county, he had another skirmish with the Federals under Col. W. C. Bartlett, of New York, and on the 7th of May, 1865, ascertaining that General Johnson had surrendered, negotiated terms favorable to his own command and the District, which were confirmed by Brig.Gen. J. G. Martin and Col. W. H. Thomas. This was the last regular surrender East of the Mississippi River. It will be remembered that General Dick Taylor surrendered on the 4th of May, 1865. Thus our gallant "Tar-Heels" in obedience to the commands of their State were among the first and last to do their duty.

X.

TO SHAKE, OR NOT TO SHAKE?—Aye that is the question. Is it better to quiver from head to foot in the paroxysms of fever and ague, or to banish the atrocious disease by a course of that standard anti-febrile remedy, Hostetter's Bitters. There cannot be much doubt as to the response of the malaria-stricken to this inquiry. From every locality on this continent whose inhabitants are to mented with the shivering plague comes an increasing demand for the only genuine preventive and eradicant of malaria provided by science. The denizens of fever and ague districts well know how utterly inadequate to do more than give a brief respite are the so-called remedies of the faculty. Quinine, arsenic, bismuth—what are these but poisonous palliatives, which cease after a time to produce any beneficial effect whatever, and if persisted in wreak irreparable mischief upon the system? Everywhere they are being abandoned by intelligent persons, and that genuine vegetable specific for intermittent and remittent disease, Hostetter's Bitters, substituted in their place.

Committee of Arrangements.—G. W. Blount, B. F. Briggs and A. Barnes, Esqs.
Depository—Bank of Wilson.
Advisory Board.—John Nichols, Esq., Raleigh, W. F. Davis, Esq., Kittrells, A. H. A. Williams, Esq., Oxford, Maj. J. P. Jenkins, Nashville, J. H. Thorp, Esq., Rocky Mount, Jr. R. W. King, James W. Lancaster and James E. Clark, Esqs., Wilson.
While this enterprise is not conducted under the direct auspices of any Lodge, yet its object is to aid that noble institution, the Oxford Orphan Asylum, which was established by the Grand Lodge of the State, and the management is entirely in the hands of members of the Order.
The object is exclusively for the benefit of the Orphan Asylum and the Committee deem it unnecessary to make any extended appeal to the people of North Carolina in behalf of an institution which is so worthy of their support. The low price of the tickets places it in the power of every one to aid a noble cause, and at the same time the chances of being reimbursed are unusually favorable.
It is confidently believed that the enterprise will be a success, but if from any cause there should be no Concert and distribution, all the money received from the ticket holders shall be returned to them without discount.
No tickets sold will be entitled to a chance for the Gifts unless the money for the same has been received at this office.
The Gifts will be distributed immediately after the Concert
Any person holding a ticket entitled to a Gift who desires the Asylum to have the benefit of such Gift, will notify the Secretary by such endorsement on back of the ticket, and the same shall be appropriated as directed.
☞ Money for tickets must be sent by Registered Letter, Money Order or Express, directed to A. BARNES, Secretary.

Are daily receiving, and will keep constantly on hand
A FULL AND CAREFULLY SELECTED STOCK OF
Groceries of all kinds, which we offer to our friends and the public generally, cheap for CASH or BARTER. Our stock was bought within the past two weeks, and our goods are all
New and Fresh, and having been bought since the recent decline, we will compete with any house in town. Our house is new and spacious, and our facilities for handling goods are unsurpassed. We propose to do a
STRICTLY CASH BUSINESS, WITHOUT VARIATION,

ACCOMPANIED WITH THE CASH,
will be promptly and carefully executed. We hope by strict personal attention to all business intrusted to us, to merit our share of the public patronage.
Respectfully,
ADAMS & MOORE.

In addition to the above business, I will continue my Cotton Commission business as heretofore, at my New store on Wilmington street, where I have unequaled facilities for handling and storing cotton. Liberal cash advances made on cotton stored with me. I make cotton a specialty, and would say to farmers that Raleigh, as a cotton market, cannot be excelled, North or South. Thankful for past favors, I hope by strict personal attention to my business in the future, to merit a still larger portion of the public patronage.

MIDNIGHT DISPATCHES.

The President's Message in Relation to the Condition of the South.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 12th.—On the distribution of the President's annual message among the various committees of the House on Wednesday, the portion of it referring to the troubles in Arkansas was referred to the Select Committee already existing on that subject, and that portion of the message in relation to the troubles in Louisiana and the other Southern States (excepting Arkansas) was refered to a Select Committee of Seven to be appointed by the Speaker. This Committee has not yet been appointed. It is very probable that after it has been appointed and organized, it will proceed to take testimony through sub-committees or otherwise in relation to the disturbed condition of affairs in Mississippi and Louisiana. Of course, any announcement of what has been or has not been determined, is premature and unauthorized so long as the committee itself is not actually in existence.

The Knight Templars—the Striking Sailors Processioning.

PHILADELPHIA, Dec. 12th.—The Knights Templars are making preparations for a grand fete on the 6th of January in the Academy of Music and Horticultural Hall.

The striking sailors in procession carried two banners, one containing the words, "Friendless sailors only ask for what is right," the other reading, "Remember the defenders of our country in time of war." A large number of flags representing various countries, trading with this port, and a full rigged schooner elevated upon the shoulders of four men, were also conspicuous in the line.

Sunday Concerts at Terrace Garden.

NEW YORK, Dec. 12.—Chief Justice Daily, in the court of Common Pleas, rendered an opinion this afternoon denying the motion to continue the injunction restraining the Police Commissioners from interfering with the Sunday concerts at Terrace Garden. The court sustains the constitutionality of the act for the better preservation of the peace on Sunday, and declares the things prohibited need not be expressed in the title, moreover the court cannot say judicially that the prohibition of theatrical performance on Sunday does not conduce to the preservation of the peace on that day.

Louisiana Matters Still Bothering the Washington Officials.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 12.—General Grant is quoted thus: "If further troubles occur in Louisiana he will send some one there who will hurt. He is said to have in view for this business either Gen. Sherridan or General Terry. Senator West and Congressman Darrell were not present when application was made for troops in the State House at New Orleans.

Judgment Entered—Bank Statement.

NEW YORK, Dec. 12th.—A judgment has been entered in the Supreme Court Circuit against Samana Bay for $14,631 for arms supplied by D. Remington & Sons.

The bank statement shows loans decrease 1¼ million; specie decrease ½ million; deposits decreased 1¼ million; reserve decrease ¾ million.

WASHINGTON, December 12.—For the South Atlantic and Gulf States, Tennessee and the Ohio Valley increasing cloudiness will prevail, with easterly or southerly winds, slowly rising temperature, falling barometer and areas of rain in the lower Mississippi and Ohio Valleys.

CINCINNATI, Dec. 12.—The latest intelligence from the Corinth bank robbers states that the Sheriff's posse is in hot pursuit but are nearly 12 hours behind them. The robbers were making for Sand Mountain, at Alabama.

Attempt to Burn a State Prison.

AUBURN, Dec. 12.—Two attempts to burn the Auburn State Prison were made to-day, undoubtedly by the convicts. Loss insignificant.

THE EXACT TRUTH.—Gen. Banks, in a lecture in Boston, marked by liberality and good sense, thus reported:

"The financial and all the business embarrassments under which we at the North were pressed were due to the condition of affairs in the South, for it was impossible that a portion of the country should be in anarchy, and the 12,000,000 of people suffering an invasion of their social and political rights, and the other portions be unaffected.

This is the first instance of the full and independent declaration of the truth in this matter by any northern statesman. We hail it with satisfaction. It contains as food for reflection that may well employ the minds of northern people. Sooner or later they will be forced to study the subject fully.

How John Jacob Astor Does Business.

The wealthiest men in New York hold the bonds of the city. They appear in person to look after their interests. On the street and among the great commercial houses interest is received, money deposited, heavy bills and drafts called by boys, who get three and four dollars a week for their work. But the heavy men of the city attend to this business in person. I saw John Jacob Astor in the comptroller's office the other day, a modest, quiet, unassuming man, careful of his words as he is of his dollars. A huge fellow, over six feet high; massive in size; red hair; heavy, phlegmatic, German in look; with a ponderous tread that made the chandeliers jingle as he walked along; and withal he has a decided stoop. He came in and did not even speak. He added "How-do-you-do?" The clerk gave him a look of subdued recognition, darted off for a big book, opened it, pointed his finger to the place of signature. The millionaire took the pen, placed his name where it ought to be, took the check, bowed and passed out. The only word he uttered in the room was in reply to a statement by a visitor: "Very pleasant weather, Mr. Astor." "Very." He was in the city hall about three minutes. The transaction involved millions.—N. Y. Ledger.

New Jersey Enamel Paint Co.,

MANUFACTURERS OF

LIQUID ENAMEL PAINT.

BRADLEY'S PATENT

MADE FROM

Pure White Lead, Linseed Oil and Zinc, and Always Ready for Use.

READ THE FOLLOWING TESTIMONIALS:

From Prof. W. G. Simmons, Wake Forest College, North Carolina.

WAKE FOREST COLLEGE, N. C., October 4, 1873.

Mr. C. P. Knight—Dear Sir: We have for several months been using your Bradley's Patent Enamel Paint on our College Building, and are well pleased with it. Though it was applied by one having no experience in such work, yet we have a good job. We shall continue to use it—believing that in point of economy, durability and facility of application, it is superior to any other pigment offered in the market.

W. G. SIMMONS.

From Messrs. Engelhard & Saunders, Editors and Proprietors Journal.

WILMINGTON, N. C., December, 26, 1873.

We desire to call especial attention to the advertisement of "Bradley's Patent Enamel Paint." We can recommend it from a knowledge of its merits. Some of the employees of this office having purchased some of this paint from Mr. C. P. Knight, of Baltimore, have us d it and speak in the highest terms of it, after a trial of several months. While it is as durable as ordinary paint, it has a much finer finish, and its cost and convenience will recommend it to all in need of paint.

From S. McGill, M. D.

THE PLAINS, FAQUIER CO., VA., Feb. 6, 1873.

Mr. C. P. Knight—Sir: The paint came safe to hand as ordered, 2 kegs, 5 gallon each, and 3 buckets, 1 gallon each. As practice was slack, I did the job myself. Two weeks (not constant work) completed the house, two coats; the last coat I applied thick, and it is now generally conceded that, for "enamel," like hardness, and body and harmony of colors, there is not a handsomer job in the place. I have saved sixty-five dollars by the operation—which is an item just now with the Southern people. It should be generally adopted in this State. Any country lad can apply it. I have never dabbled in such stock as "testimonials," but I feel so forcibly the great adaptability of your "Enamel Paint" to the wants of our people—in excellency of material, in beauty of color, and in the fact of its being "ready mixed," that I give you permission (if it is desirable to you) to make what use you think proper of this letter.

Very respectfully and truly,
S. McGILL, M. D.

Always ready for use and easily applied. Sold by the gallon. One gallon covers twenty square yards, two coats.

Specimens and Price List furnished gratis.

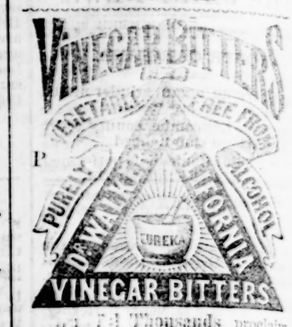
VINEGAR BITTERS



Thousands proclaim VINEGAR BITTERS the most wonderful invigorant that ever sustained the sinking system.

No Person can take these Bitters according to directions, and remain long unwell, provided their bones are not destroyed by mineral poison or other means, and vital organs wasted beyond repair.

Bilious, Remittent, and Intermittent Fevers, which are so prevalent in the valleys of our great rivers throughout the United States, especially those of the Mississippi, Ohio, Missouri, Illinois, Tennessee, Cumberland, Arkansas, Red, Colorado, Brazos, Rio Grande, Pearl, Alabama, Mobile, Savannah, Roanoke, James, and many others, with their vast tributaries, throughout our entire country during the Summer and Autumn, and remarkably so during seasons of unusual heat and dryness, are invariably accompanied by extensive derangements of the stomach and liver, and other abdominal viscera. In their treatment, a purgative, exerting a powerful influence upon these various organs, is essentially necessary. There is no cathartic for the purpose equal to DR. J. WALKER'S VINEGAR BITTERS, as they will speedily remove the dark-colored viscid matter with which the bowels are loaded, at the same time stimulating the secretions of the liver, and generally restoring the healthy functions of the digestive organs.

Fortify the body against disease by purifying all its fluids with VINEGAR BITTERS. No epidemic can take hold of a system thus fore-armed.

Dyspepsia or Indigestion, Headache, Pain in the Shoulders, Coughs, Tightness of the Chest, Dizziness, Sour Eructations of the Stomach, Bad Taste in the Mouth, Bilious Attacks, Palpitation of the Heart, Inflammation of the Lung
